

THE GREEN GUIDE

GIVE YOUR SPACE A SUSTAINABLE REFRESH WITH NICOLE GRAY'S PICK OF SWISH, ECO-FRIENDLY HOMEWARE

A stylish slogan plate – hand-painted and made from recycled clay – will look great on the wall or dining table. From £50, harliebrowstudio.co.uk

After that effortless global traveller vibe? This tasseled cushion, made from recycled silk, will bolster your boho credentials in one go. £40, frenchconnection.com

Who would think that this glam curvaceous vase was made from glazed sustainable paper? Not us. £34, curiousegg.com

This hand-blown glass pitcher is guaranteed to add some painterly pep to the picnic spread. £18, johnlewis.com

Ace your space with this checkerboard jute runner. Each 'one of a kind' design is made by skilled artisans in India who are paid fairly for their craft. £200, tateanddarby.com

Do your bit for climate change one cushion at a time. A tree is planted for every purchase of this biodegradable linen design. £58, hainescollection.co.uk

Elevate your tablespace with these sustainable-glass tumblers. Hand-blown, each one has a unique imperfect shape. £34 each, vigourandskills.com

The vegan paint and bamboo paper used in this art print will boost your wall's eco cred. From £30 (without frame), noama.co.uk